

Bluebird Arts and Education Alliance

Your donation to the Bluebird Arts & Education Alliance is vital to our ability to bring in unique performing artists to teach our students and community members. Your gift will allow us to provide great entertainment and enrichment for the entire community enhancing the use of the fabulous newly refurbished performing arts center at Highlands High School.

The Alliance is bringing in a wide variety of artists to put on performances, discussions and workshops, including:

- symphonies to quartets
- unique dance/movement troupes
- playwrights and their plays
- authors and book signings
- singer-songwriters and bands

Local and national acts from an eclectic array of genres will be included.

It is our hope that the exposure from this variety of artists, to our students and citizens, will nurture creativity and build a thriving and vibrant cultural lifestyle for everyone in our community.

Your donation today can make all this happen.

The Bluebird Arts and Education Alliance, operating under the direction of the Fort Thomas Independent School District is a 501(c) 3 organization, and therefore, your donations to support our efforts may be tax deductible.

This is a volunteer driven organization, so all of your investment will go towards programming costs.

So please send what you can today.
