One-of-a-kind Lilly, the spunky little mouse, speaks a secret backwards language and wears disguises, glittery glasses and red cowboy boots. One day she brings her new magical, musical purple plastic purse to school. Trouble at school and resentment about a new baby brother sets Lilly off on adventures that teach important lessons about family, friendship and forgiveness. Kevin Kling (who appeared last season at the Playhouse in his show How? How? Why? Why? Why?) has created a roller coaster of a play that has been a hit across the country.
